ZONDAG 11 MEI 1986

NUMBER 15. MAY 1986

A...AH! YAWN! The day started with 9/10 at Pool Meadow, 'were s: the Secretary attaché previouso! - fast asleep at home, after a pick me up we departed. (sorry Afwo) Flapping to London in Bedfords latest our Luxury coach awaited. 175 K & superb engineering, personal HiFi via the Sony twins, upstairs greenhouse (no flowers here or M&B just Brandy, Scotch and Tony we don't need it tasting) one way cooling providing heat only, silent video, displaying the very moments snow adventures with moving toilet but not for our convenience. Even coffee on tap - how much? and a xxxx! courier (see Mi Batei Portranslation). On arriving at Calais we could see it was going to be a low key affair! Weather - non stop rain, wellingtons the order of the day. What I hear! the canal banks rose 9", Dutch biers like water with plenty of head, the Shadons N°1 again, Hotel cleaners on strike, cockerills running wild I can't handle this... must read on (sounds very live wire... ed)

Hollander Dutch Television Newsflash

A major archeological discovery was unearthed on Monday 19th May 1986
Not since TUT has such a find surfaced.
The item in question was a yet undefined?
100 year plus family airtelom ... a wireless.
firmly wrapped in sticky tape with its own 24 volts back pack Mr Joe King remarked
"This is definitely a 75 feet per second fast moving player not unknown to drop from skyscrapers, but most aggravating since it only plays "Help! release me from this!"

QUOTE "Even Bob Hewitt could run a P.B.
here"

"When are we ever going to see a kill

"I wonder what the crisps taste like here"

"Come follow me!" "No chance mate"

"WHAT SONG SPEED CHIEF? YOU JOKING! HOW ABOUT A SMACK IN THE MOUTH?"
